DALY WILL BOX COLE IN THE SEMI-WINDUP

Extra Good Six-Round Bout in Connection with Ryan-Beauscholte Contest.

IN TRAINING

The Indianapolis Athletic Club is making every effort to obtain the best programme In addition to Tommy Ryan, the middle-Chicago, contesting in the main bout of Cole, of Alexandria, and Jack Daly, of Paterson, N. J., to meet in the six-round semiin the State and recently defeated Kld Henderson at the entertainment given for the miners at the Empire. Daly is now at Peoria, Ill., and is working out with Austin Rice, the clever featherweight. Rice will box in Peorla in a short time. Efforts are now being made to match the best boxers in the city to meet in the preliminaries. Tommy Ryan has written that he is in training for his match in Indianapolis and expects to enter the ring in as good condition as when he met Philadelphia Jack O'Brien in Philadelphia last month. Ryan says he realizes that Beauscholte will have the advantage in weight, but he expects his cleverness to gain him a decision over the Chicago man. Ryan will come to Indianapolis next Saturday and complete his training in this city. Beauscholte has written that he will arrive in Indianapolis next until next Saturday. Arrangements have been made whereby out-of-town orders will receive attention. The advance sale of seats will be conducted at Dallas Tyler's, 12 HOLTMAN AND DWYER West Market street.

M. T. H. S. BASEBALL MEN WORK OUT IN THE GYM

Many Candidates for the Pitching and Catching Departments.

The candidates for places on the Manual Training High School baseball team worked out for the first time in the school gymnasium yesterday afternoon under the direction of Capt. Louis Bohnstadt. Captain Bohnstadt will endeavor to get the battery men in shape during the preliminary practice. The players worked for three solid hours and were well winded at the close of practice. The pitchers were Captain Bohnstadt, Diddle, Gray and Schmidt, Those who will try for places at the receiving end of the battery were De Haven, King, West, Murr and Bonham. The game between the Manual Training basketball and the Piqua teams, which was to have been played in Piqua on Feb. 27. has been postponed by the local lads until the first week in March. The Manchu-Ranchero fraternity team of the South Side School may play the Young Men's Club five in Columbus on Friday night of this week.

-Bridge and Mountain. NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 15 .- The ice bridge and ice mountain at the falls have reached unusual proportions. Such a large mass of ice has been brought down from the lakes that the mountain has approached to within twenty-five feet of the crest of the cataract. The trees and rocks on Goat island and on either bank are covered with frost and glittering ice and present a remarkably beautiful appearance. The amount of its capital paid up As the ice bridge grows with the accumulation of broken ice coming down the river it is believed the increase will continue for a month, as the upper lakes have thicker | The Assets of the Company in the United States ice than for several years past. Thousands of people viewed the ice scenery to-day and crowded the river on the ice bridge

FALSE PRETENSES AND Printer and Former City Con-

rants have been issued for the arrest of ex-City Controller Leo A. Caro and Ever Rice, of the West Michigan Printing Company, charging false pretenses and conspiracy. It Rice conspired to defraud the city in printing city reports. It is charged that Rice, who has done the city printing for several years, has duplicated his bills, collecting $657 more than was his due and that this was Controller Caro, who is now a resident of Battle Creek. During the period of investigation Rice has not denied the overcharge. but declared that it was due to defective bookkeeping. The defendants entered pleas of not guilty in Police Court this afternoon and demanded examinations. They were re-ICE ON THE FALLS working to strengthen the Danville five. He has signed Levi Foster, rush, and Frank Graffam, goal tend, for the Danville quintet. Kid Sutherland, who has been playing only a fair game in front of the cage, will soon be released, and Graffam may play his first game in the West on Thursday night, when Kokomo plays in the Illinois city. Mr. Foor stated last night that he would, in all probability, loan Foster to Terre Haute for the balance of the season. Foster would be recalled if any of the Danville players suffered injury. Danville has speedy pair in Campbell and Daiy, and
